

I am NOT in favor of the proposal to relax the restrictions on the number of stations that may be owned by a single entity.

The FCC's needs to protect public access to varied information and perspectives and not allow a few sources to dominate the airwaves.